

Surf King

(Updated: 9/2010)

OWNER: Emil McCowan

FACTORY: Hoquiam, Washington. c 1940's. c 1950's

Made by McCowan Enterprises

MODELS: None reported to date.

BLANKS:

Wood: 13' Hollow waterproof marine plywood & bronze nails, Figure 1. 1940's. 1950's

Note: These were hand made in a jig acquired from an earlier local paddle board maker.

Foam: None made.

Figure 1

NOSE PLUG: Figure 2. 1940's. 1950's

SHAPES: Paddle boards, paipos, skim boards. 1940's. 1950's

LOGO: 'Surf-King - McCowan Enterprises - Hoquiam, WN' Figure 2. c 1940's. c 1950's

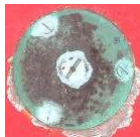

Figure 2

Figure 3

COLOR, ART & FINISH: Painted. 1940's. 1950's

NUMBERING: None reported to date.

Contributors: Tim McCowan, Greg Lynch, Jack Durney, Jim Pumphies, Mark McFeeley & Terri Middleton.

Correspondent: Donald Dvorin

If you have any information on this brand or the people involved, please contact the SnB Editor Andy Anderson.